Inside 'Messiah' Quinn's €80k sessions

TODAY the Sunday World goes inside the weird world of 'cult Messiah' Tony Quinn.

We can reveal exactly what goes on at the 62-year-old health guru's secret mind-bending sessions in the sun.

EXCLUSIVE By NICOLA TALLANT

Thousands of Irish people have coughed up to €80,000 each to attend the former butcher's controversial seminars in the sunkissed Bahamas.

Footage from inside the camps on Paradise Island show followers writhing on the floor in states of ecstasy as the guru, who devotees believe is a reincarnation of Jesus, speaks and lays his hands on them.
